

First Friday Leadership Workshop

Leadership and Financial Literacy

The First Friday Leadership Society (FFLS) offers a series of leadership development workshops every first Friday of the month at the Namibia University of Science and Technology (NUST). These interactive sessions are open to the entire student community and is designed to build practical leadership skills, including public speaking, interpersonal communication and conflict resolution.

The first workshop, “Leadership and Financial Literacy”, is scheduled for Friday, 08 March 2019. This session will equip students with leadership skills to be smart in spending and saving.

Date: Friday, 08 March 2019

Time: 12:30

Venue: SRC Boardroom

About the Speaker

Ms Chuma Siboleka, a Senior Economist at the Ministry of Finance was born in Katima Mulilo in the Zambezi Region. She holds an Honours degree in Economics from the University of Namibia. She started her career as an Investment Advisor at Capricorn Asset Management. Since 2017, under the Ministry’s Financial Literacy Initiative, Ms Siboleka has facilitated financial wellness training and delivered public talks on financial matters.

Enquiries

Ms Alta McNally
Student Counsellor and HIV/AIDS Coordinator
Department of Student Services
T: +264 207 2453
E: amcnally@nust.na

Ms Christine van Wyk
Secretary: Information and Publicity
Department of Student Services
T: +264 207 2466
E: infopub.src@nust.na

